

The Commonwealth Club of California

Presents

Iftekhar Hai

TUESDAY FEBRUARY 7 | MIDDLE EAST

IFTEKHAR HAI, Islamic Religious Teacher; Writer; Interfaith activist

FATWA AS AN ANTIDOTE TO MUSLIM TERRORISM

What is the concept of fatwa How does it work? Could it be used as an antidote to terrorism? Hai, an Islamic religious teacher, writer and interfaith activist, will provide an in-depth explanation of the "stand against terrorism and religious extremism" taken by the Islamic Society of North America through fatwa. More and more institutions, schools and mosques are adopting ISNA Fatwa and stand against terrorism as "policy" of their institution. ISNA, largest American Muslim organization is leading the way for reforms in the light of global conscience and global consciousness.

make a >> reservation

5:30 p.m., Reception | 6:00 p.m., Program | Club office, 595 Market St., 2nd floor, San Francisco | $8 for Members, $15 for Non-members

Program Organizer: Parisa Nesva Derani

Call 415-597-6705/06 for reservations

Or www.commonwealthclub.org

Merry Christmas & Happy Hanukha:

Muslims pray for the day when

Love Thy Neighbor As Thyself becomes a universal message.